

Benefits of Food Bank Membership

For member agencies of Ozarks Food Harvest

FDA Recall Protection

Ozarks Food Harvest's inventory system protects member agencies in the event of food recalls. The food recall system protects the member at all times.

If a recall is issued, Ozarks Food Harvest will contact you immediately.

Advocacy

Ozarks Food Harvest is advocating on your behalf in Jefferson City and Washington, D.C.

The Food Bank is an active member of the Missouri Food Bank Association as well as Feeding America, the nation's network association of food banks. Through these organizations, Ozarks Food Harvest is able to gain awareness and support about the issue of hunger in the Ozarks.

Continuing Education Opportunities

The Food Bank provides educational opportunities for member agencies, including:

- A. Grant Writing Forum.
- B. Annual Member Services Conference with educational workshops.
- C. Nutrition materials.
- D. Community Referral Resources.

Supporting Your Needs

Ozarks Food Harvest has a knowledgeable, friendly staff that is sincerely committed to fighting hunger in the Ozarks.

- A. Dedicated customer hotline with a staff member prepared to answer your questions or concerns.
- B. Ozarks Food Harvest & Feeding America staff are consistently soliciting major food donors on behalf of member agencies.
- C. Ozarks Food Harvest provides a Purchased Food Program in addition to the donated food items.
- D. The Food Bank provides additional networking opportunities with other similar agencies and professionals.
- E. Availability of free conference room/meeting facility with audio/visual equipment for members.

